CCPL
CHESTERFIELD
COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Materials Donation Guide

Why Your Donation Helps

Your donation adds to the library's collection, supports book sales, and enhances the Summer Learning Program.

All donations are tax deductible. Receipts are available upon request, indicating the total number of books donated. (Monetary estimates are not included.)

Other Ways to Support

If you wish to make a monetary donation, we welcome your gift. Your support will help ensure that the library will continue to deliver the quality services and items that have placed Chesterfield County Public Library among the best in Virginia.

Thank you for your interest in donating materials to the Chesterfield County Public Library!

Donations CCPL Accepts

- Hardcover and paperback books, adult, teen, juvenile; fiction and nonfiction; and large print
- Professionally produced media items such as CDs, audiobooks, game systems and games for Wii, Wii U; Playstation, 3, 4 or Vita; and Xbox 360 or Xbox One
- Current magazines, complete sets of encyclopedias and unused workbooks

All materials should be in good condition.

Exclusions include the following items that are more than five years old:

- Medical and financial advice books
- Travel guidebooks
- Computer manuals
- Test preparation guides

Text books more than 10 years old are not accepted and only current price guides and almanacs are needed.

library.chesterfield.gov
804-751-CCPL

Providing a FIRST CHOICE community through excellence in public service