CHESTERFIELD COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY TO HOST COMMUNITY DIALOGUE ABOUT UNREST

CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, VA — The Chesterfield County Public Library is launching a series of community engagement programs called Points of View (POV). The first program, on the topic of unrest, will take place on Thursday, Sept. 21, 6:30-8 p.m., Meadowdale Library, 4301 Meadowdale Blvd, North Chesterfield, 23234. WRIC-TV anchor Juan Conde will participate in the September program by helping to facilitate some of the discussion.

Points of View is designed to give the community a forum to explore current issues, listen critically and express concerns. The library will also provide resources and opportunities for participants interested in learning more about the topics discussed. Meadowdale's second program in the series, scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 16, will focus on education. For more information visit library.chesterfield.gov or call (804) 318-8778.
