

Central Library
Local History Celebration
Thursday, September 27, 2018
10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Ceremony

Performance/Local History Area 10-11:30 a.m.

Visit Central Library's newly renovated Local History space as we salute Virginia's involvement in World War I. Jim Triesler of the Virginia War Memorial is the featured speaker with appearances by the Fort Lee 392nd Army Band Brass Quintet and Meadowbrook High School JROTC Color Guard. Reception immediately following ceremony.

Registration required and begins Sept. 13.

Informational Tables 10 a.m.-1 p.m.

Chesterfield Centennial Committee • Chesterfield Historical Society • Daughters of the American Revolution • Fort Lee Women's Army Museum • Genealogical Research Institute of Virginia • Library of Virginia • McGuire Medical Center Donation Collection • Virginia War Memorial

Profiles of Honor Mobile Tour sponsored by the Virginia WWI and WWII Commemoration Commission

Central Parking Lot 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Walk in the footsteps of the Virginians who served in two of the world's greatest conflicts. This handicap-accessible interactive exhibit features stories and artifacts including a full-scale model of an M5A1 Stuart tank. No registration required.

WWI and WWII Scanning Event

Local History Area 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Bring your WWI and WWII-related photos, letters, diaries and other memorabilia to be scanned and displayed in the public archives of Library of Virginia. By scanning these items, the Profiles of Honor Project will allow individuals to keep their original items yet preserve the stories of our WWI and WWII veterans. Honor your heroes and preserve their stories! No registration required.